

Joint LAAP and MPP response the FCA's PS24/6: Primary Markets Effectiveness Review: Feedback to CP23/31 and final UK Listing Rules

In response to the publication of the FCA's PS24/6: Primary Markets Effectiveness Review: Feedback to CP23/31 and final UK Listing Rules;

Mandy Gradden, Chair of the Listing Authority Advisory Panel and Clare Woodman, Chair of the Markets Practitioner Panel, said:

"Today marks a pivotal step towards a brighter financial future for our capital markets. The FCA's reforms to the listing rules prioritise clarity and accountability, and help create a fairer, more competitive landscape for companies and investors to thrive.

"It has been great to see the FCA acting at significant pace throughout the development of the new rules while engaging with such a wide range of voices."
