RELEVANT STATUTORY PROVISIONS

6. The statutory and regulatory provisions relevant to this Final Notice are set out in the Annex.

SUMMARY OF THE REASONS

7. On the basis of the facts and matters and conclusions described in the Warning Notice, and in the Decision Notice, it appears to the Authority that GPL is failing to satisfy the suitability Threshold Condition, in that the Authority is not satisfied that GPL is a fit and proper person having regard to all the circumstances.
8. GPL has failed to notify the Authority of a change in the address and telephone number of its principal place of business and has failed to deal openly and co-operatively with the Authority (in not providing up-to-date contact details).

FACTS AND MATTERS

9. GPL was authorised by the Authority on 16 September 2014 to conduct consumer credit business.
10. Correspondence sent by the Authority on 11 February 2016 and 11 May 2016 to the postal address last notified by GPL to the Authority as GPL’s principal place of business has been returned with the annotations “addressee gone away” and “refused”.

11. Correspondence sent by the Authority on 17 February 2016 to the postal address last notified by GPL to the Authority as GPL's Registered Office address was returned to the Authority with the annotations "addressee unknown" and "addressee gone away".
12. Correspondence sent by the Authority on 19 February 2016 and 11 May 2016 to the postal address detailed in Companies House records as GPL's Registered Office address was returned to the Authority with the annotations "addressee gone away" and "not called for".
13. Correspondence sent by the Authority on 11 February 2016 to the email address last notified by GPL to the Authority was returned as undeliverable, and to date no response has been received from email correspondence sent to that address on 11 May 2016.
14. The Authority attempted to contact GPL on 15 February 2016 and 23 February 2016 on the last telephone number GPL provided to the Authority. The Authority was informed that the telephone number is no longer valid for GPL as it belongs to an individual who is no longer associated with GPL.

FAILINGS

15. As set out in the facts and matters described above, the Authority has made repeated unsuccessful attempts to contact GPL using the postal address, email address and telephone number held by the Authority in relation to GPL, and using contact details for GPL in Companies House records.
16. The Authority has concluded, on the basis of the facts and matters described above, that—
 - a. GPL has failed to notify the Authority of a change in the address and telephone number of its principal place of business contrary to SUP 15.5.4R(1) and SUP 15.5.5R(1) respectively;
 - b. GPL has failed to deal openly and co-operatively with the Authority in breach of Principle 11 (Relations with regulators) of the Principles (in not providing up-to-date contact details);
 - c. GPL has not demonstrated that it is ready, willing and organised to comply with the requirements and standards under the regulatory system, namely the requirements in SUP 15.5.4R(1) and SUP 15.5.5R(1) to give the Authority reasonable advance notice of a change in the firm's principal place of business and telephone number, and the date of the change;
 - d. GPL has therefore failed to satisfy the Authority that its business is being managed in such a way as to ensure that its affairs will be conducted in a sound and prudent manner or that it is a fit and proper person having regard to all the circumstances; and
 - e. GPL is therefore failing to satisfy the suitability Threshold Condition in relation to its permitted regulated activities, and accordingly, GPL's Part 4A permission should be cancelled.

- (f) whether [the firm's] business is being, or is to be, managed in such a way as to ensure that its affairs will be conducted in a sound and prudent manner

Guidance concerning the suitability Threshold Condition

7. Guidance on the suitability Threshold Condition is set out in COND 2.5.

9. COND 2.5.6G states that examples of the kind of particular considerations to which the Authority may have regard when assessing whether a firm will satisfy, and continue to satisfy, the suitability Threshold Condition include whether:

- the firm has been open and co-operative in all its dealings with the Authority and is ready, willing and organised to comply with the requirements and standards under the regulatory system (COND 2.5.6G(1));
- the firm has contravened, amongst other things, the provisions of the regulatory system, which include the Principles and other rules (COND 2.5.6G(4)).

OTHER RELEVANT REGULATORY PROVISIONS

10. The Authority's policy in relation to its enforcement powers is set out in EG, certain provisions of which are summarised below.

Cancelling a firm's Part 4A permission on the Authority's own initiative

11. EG 8.5.1(1) states that the Authority will consider cancelling a firm's Part 4A permission using its own initiative power contained in section 55J of the Act in circumstances where the Authority has very serious concerns about the firm, or the way its business is or has been conducted.

12. EG 8.5.2 provides examples of the types of circumstances in which the Authority may cancel a Part 4A permission. One such example is the failure to provide the Authority with valid contact details or failure to maintain the details provided, such that the Authority is unable to communicate with the firm (EG 8.5.2(6)).
